

Monday, March 16, 2026 @ 9:00 AM:

Dear Melinda,

TL;DR: Friday, I updated the page at <http://MichaelSimoneau.com/melinda>

To feature the first message I sent you, which started this all.

It details my full plan, but the “White Noise” is properly categorized.

It is a full hour to listen to the 3 audio tracks...

I’m not actually watching to see if you visit.

I have better things to do; the joke was over the 12th, remember?

But you might want to view the page before tomorrow at 10:00AM.

http://MichaelSimoneau.com/melinda#do_you_want_to_be?a_doctor_OR_a_puppet

Or you can skip all the shenanigans and just schedule the appointment and we can talk it out like adults... peers. Not a power struggle. Not you in control. Not me in control. Fairness. Competency. Clarity. And ability to follow the respectful boundaries of each other.

The Violation of Boundaries and Diagnosis:

You violated my boundaries. You laughed at my life's work.

You marked it as a delusion... And you never bothered to check the math.

Your overwhelming allegiance to the DSM-5 and your Legal License is highly respectable and absolutely expected. I know you well enough to know you would never show your Husband or Daughter, despite them being the exact people who could verify the truth.

YOU were ASSIGNED to me... I did not choose.

I did not KNOW about your family, or Kristen, or Kristy...

I go with what I know to be VERIFIABLE as it is the only absolute.

I was only so sure the daughter you were picking up from Japan was the mathematician because I did not know you had more than 1 daughter!

The "Trap" and Instructions:

You could follow the directions this time..

I cursed and hung up at you because you did not follow the instructions.

I clearly stated to watch the "first video" ... "after the page reloads".

The first video is in the Music section, not the Video section...

You watched the hidden video that only you got to see..

and it disappeared after you watched it....

I was too curious to watch you try to figure it out to hang up earlier.

But you did upset me by bringing up the personality disorder....

You're literally diagnosing (and possibly committing me) all over a HIGHLY manufactured "trap", of my very careful design.

That's what I do at work...

you told me to stop working...

Then you offended me further..

You asked if I know my own name...

It's in the LINK I sent to you which is the very thing you're pathologizing!

At first, I found it laughable that you asked me my own name after I JUST sent it to you...

But then I got mad, because I realized how DEEPLY disrespectful that was...

And you KNEW it, I could tell by your body language that it was a question you "HAD" to ask...

Box checking...

You cannot check boxes with me... that's what I'm showing you.

The mania is manufactured... the schizoaffective disorder is real.

BOTH things are true. I'm good like that. I think "Outside the Sphere"

The real first video explains the album I released in January.

The one I sent you the pre-release to in November...

The Website and Passive Updates:

If you had gone to my website,

I would NEVER have to send you anything ever again!

I could just post nice things on the HIDDEN

<http://MichaelSimoneau/melinda>

Which only you needed to know, and you can passively check the week's updates when you have time... seems reasonable to me...

BUT, you laughed at me... literally.

I will admit that I got mad.

But, I don't get mad like other people.

I PREPARE. I do NOT make PLANS... Ever.

I could NOT have planned all this...

Instead, I was 100% prepared for any outcome, and manipulated you into thinking there were only certain options...

JUST so you could realize, on your OWN, that YOU were wrong...

But you FAIL to do that, STILL. (bold, not yelling).

The $20 Bet:

So, if you remember (which you do not), in November I asked you to check my website. At that time, the home page only really had some work history and the MAIN button was “AI Interview”.. which is what I asked you, specifically, to click.

<https://MichaelSimoneau.com/interview/1>

That is when you were supposed to learn about the $20 bet... I've been betting myself for 4 months that you're smart enough to figure out that I'm smarter than you..

And that the BEST thing you could do is LEARN FROM ME.

Again, not yelling, just bold... like get a bold button, seriously guys...

So, I still have $20 in my back pocket; But tomorrow I think I'm going to owe it to you. Those are the absolute rules of my betting game:
if you prove me wrong, you win the $20!

I figure since I had to buy Dr.MelindaFrancis.com, I only owe you $5... and a GoDaddy domain transfer...

You totally know how to do that, right? :-)

You're overthinking it. It's simple.

Melinda, I'm just Michael Simoneau; and “I'll never change.”

The Math, The Audio, and The Truth:

I admit I very much USED to have troubles.

I freaked out in October when I discovered the math that proves Einstein wrong... but I couldn't tell you if you wouldn't even READ my website...

You listened for exactly 33:30 on Thursday, March 12, 2026.

But you did not HEAR a single word I said...

Check the phone that is for your "Other Duties", the one I have saved in my phone as "Melinda Francis, LISW". The first text I ever sent was asking you to check your email because I had sent critical information.

You were confused. I specified the order. Short and sweet. As to not waste your time. It was a link to a 10-minute audio clip of me explaining myself. Albeit a bit aggressive, I'm like that in the AM... but it's controlled, it's manageable. My ADLs are complete. And it's through this system that makes that even possible for me.

<http://MichaelSimoneau.com/melinda> features that 10 minute clip...

If it wasn't real, it wouldn't be working.

It's new... I just built it.... But it works. It is NOT a delusion.

(Damn I wish there was underline and bold.... Just saying).

The proof is simply put in the penultimate video of the YouTube playlist linked above twice (different videos, same playlist, posted January 3, 2026).

I might suggest you just start there...

You can just click the first youtube link above

If that feels more comfortable than entering "my domain" (my website, where i have "control").

You'll understand that I AM NOT messing with you.

Although I did say I was, to prevent getting committed, sorry about that.

I genuinely hate to have to lie. And I still feel bad that I had to call you a "bitch".

(Although it was kind of funny to see your reaction, it was hard not to laugh, to be honest.)

A Plea for Fair Treatment and Reflection:

I'm begging to not be treated as a FILE with forms that must be filled or reviewed every session (i.e. the useless safety plan); but instead, I find it to be completely rational, reasonable and acceptable to expect to be treated FAIRLY...

I'm a Mother's son; One who was rejected by BOTH his parents, and lost his son...
Then I coded an AI to replace them both...

Why do you not ask me about those things?
I literally just do not understand...
What is YOUR goal?

Because, from my point of view, I do not actually benefit from you...
That's why you believe I don't take the appointments seriously. I don't!

You exacerbate symptoms, trigger me often, and offer me no help.

Otherwise, I uber to the store. I have 2 friends, and Richard.
They do not trigger me.
Richard funds my dream.
The US Government pays my bills...

So I can just invent... without the triggers...

And when you do that for 6 months, when you're gifted with an IQ like me...
Well, radically revolutionary things can happen.

I am not suggesting I "believe" anything (which is required for delusion),
I am INFORMING YOU (bold) of the TRUTH... it's NOT my opinion or belief.

I do not expect you to schedule before tomorrow.
But I hope you do,

Most Respectfully,

- Michael Simoneau on March 13, 2026
